

Shopping in Carlsbad offers an enticing combination of sophistication and casual atmosphere. Downtown Carlsbad Village, just blocks from the beach, will enchant you with its diverse selections of shops. The tree-lined streets are home to art galleries, garden and home shops, jewelers, fine leather and clothing stores, spas, boutiques, wine tasting shops and a Farmer's Market with every imaginable goodie. Sidewalk cafés and other sophisticated dining options all add to the continental feel of the Village.

The Village Faire Shopping Center located in the heart of the Village features New England-style architecture with a Caribbean flare. This enclave of over 33 restaurants, shops and services surrounds a pleasant fountain courtyard and is just a few blocks from the beach. 2008 will bring entertaining and fun monthly events.

The Carlsbad Premium Outlets is a paradise of premier upscale outlet shopping. With over 90 stores to shop you will find many of the world's leading designers and brand names at great discount prices. A wide selection of dining options is available, for even the pickiest diner. This is an outdoor shopping experience for the entire family, including your well-behaved, leashed dogs.

The Forum at Carlsbad is a unique shopping and dining venue, a "lifestyle" specialty, outdoor retail complex with a distinctly pedestrian-friendly atmosphere. A tree-lined main "street," cobblestone walkways and enchanting fountains – as well as some of the largest and most prestigious retailers and restaurants are located here.

Westfield Plaza Camino Real is a regional mall with 165 specialty stores and anchored by popular department stores. The center also features some 24 eateries, serving everything from quick bites to delicious full meals.
